About the Hosts

Mike Furrey, former Rams' wide receiver and current Cleveland Browns' wide receiver, is now serving as the National President of Basket of Hope. Furrey started a Basket of Hope branch in Ohio and Kentucky. Andy Benes, a former St. Louis Cardinals' pitcher, has been involved with Basket of Hope for more than seven years and has supported the annual golf tournament and delivered baskets. Todd Johnson, Rams' saftey, and his wife, Shannon, are very active with St. Louis' Basket of Hope branch in delivering baskets and getting other Rams' players involved with the great cause.

We would like to invite you to participate in the 2009 Basket of Hope Celebrity Golf Outing on Tuesday, September 22, 2009 at Whitmoor Country Club. The tournament will begin at 11 a.m. with a shotgun start and will feature a scramble format where each foursome has a chance to be paired with a celebrity for the day. Select holes will feature prizes including hole-in-one, longest drive and closest to the pin, as well as great food and drinks from local vendors. This is not a tournament you will want to miss! A dinner, auction and awards ceremony will take place immediately following the event. Many unique experiences and one-a-kind memorabilia will be featured in the auction. All proceeds will benefit Basket of Hope which is giving hope to newly diagnosed children who have cancer or other serious illnesses and to their families.

Basket of Hope was started in 1995 in St. Louis and now there are 12 branches across the United States. Celebrities including Andy Benes, Tony Dungy, Mike Furrey, Kurt Warner, and many more are actively involved with the charity and frequently deliver baskets to children in local hospitals. Basket of Hope delivers over 3,000 baskets annually. The baskets are filled with items for the entire family including Bibles, inspirational books, journals, pre-loaded MP3 players, toys, games, crafts, gift certificates to area businesses, and much more! Each basket is valued at more than $500. You can sponsor a Basket of Hope and have your name placed in a gift basket for a $100 donation. Basket of Hope is supported solely on donations. Many of the baskets are delivered by local sports celebrities from the Rams and the Cardinals.
